

Overseas network, novel coronavirus pneumonia, 26, February, according to Yonhap reported 26, the latest report of the Ministry of disease management of Korea said that 25 cases were diagnosed from 9 to 25 local time, and 169 new cases were confirmed in South Korea, and 1146 cases were confirmed.

Yesterday (25), South Korea's ruling party, government and chingwatai held a consultation meeting, and decided to divide the two areas with the most serious epidemic situation, Daegu and Qingbei, into special control areas, and to take super strong "blockade measures" to prevent the spread of the epidemic.

On the same day, South Korean President Wen zaiyin visited Daegu and presided over a meeting on epidemic response. Wen said he would use all available means to control the outbreak. Prime Minister Ding Shijun will be the head of the central disaster safety response department, directing the local epidemic prevention work from that evening.