

The relationship between China and the United States can't go back. China and the United States can't cooperate as before

If the Chinese disrupt the pace of development of the United States, they will disrupt the global strategy of the United States and have no dominant position in the world. This is very difficult for the United States to accept. If China is allowed to develop, China will pull away all the traditional partners of the United States. These are all very minor impacts. The most important thing is that China has the strength to sanction the US economy one day.
