

Zhang Jianmin, China's ambassador to the Czech Republic, stressed in an interview with Parliament daily, the largest political commentary website in the Czech Republic, that some people hype Taiwan related issues for various purposes, which will not change the fact that Taiwan is part of China.

Czech Senate voted 50 in favor and 1 abstention on the same day to vote for a delegation led by new speaker Viktor vetzi to visit Taiwan, Czech media said Tuesday. The Czech Senate also called opposition to "visiting Taiwan" as "interference in Czech internal affairs". This decision has excited the Taiwan authorities and media who have been engaged in political manipulation recently. However, vitzie has not yet decided to visit Taiwan.
